

Hardie - 1/13/2026

Greetings to the beloved Saints;

Please pray for our obedience and faithful through the trails that we remain true and faithful to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ name.(In six weeks a bill that was $170 dollars is now $200) The Kwacha has now become based on China's Yin , no longer based on the U. S. Dollar, don't know the relevance of that.

We will need to pay Samuel's Tuition which we currently fall just short regarding the need to pay on Wednesday. The additional expense incurred by The Hundred Year Sakeji Anniversary, as well as purchasing some Sakeji Memorabilia. We will Need to pay on time to avoid additional penalties. On the 20th of January the rent is due, plus the traveling expenses of Sarah and I coming back home. The Lord has been faithful and will always be faithful, pray the Lord teaches us to be faithful to one another; family, school, to our Zambian neighbor, that baby Ruth will continue doing well as we minister to her physical and her families spiritual needs. Pray we will always being willing, able, and ready to preach the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in truth and faithfulness.

"We are bought with a price," (Christ blood) to redeem us may we hold fast in faithfulness to our faithful creator.

Paid for 1/2 Samuel and my new glasses yesterday; both Samuel and my physical eyesight has improved a bit. May our spiritual sight also continue to develop

" For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's (1 Corinthians 6:20)."

We seek to be transparent and open so all know where we are at and what we are doing. Pray for the Lord's continued direction, praying for you and yours that you would also be found faithful through your trials God Bless!!!

Looking forward to our Praer a d Bible reading meeting at Lusaka Gospel hall tonight (Tuesday).

A few pictures as we traveled by bus, Samuel sat on other side of the bus with Mom and saw a. elephant as we went through the park this past Saturday.

Second Picture an average store front (Tuck Shop) along the journey.
