

Hardie - 1/21/2026

Greetings from the Hardies

Sarah and I starting off from Lusaka, heading back to Senanga. Trying a different bus that hasn't gone to Senanga long. RK Travelers. Appreciate your prayers. God bless all of you that follow us on our journey. God has been gracious, Samuel seems to be settling back into school. He has almost written us daily, of course we have written him daily without fail. Spent sometime in the markets in Lusaka yesterday. We were surprised with a small box of bibles and Gospel papers from the States that were delivered to our friends in Lusaka.

1. Samuel preaching to Mom and Dad just before our Stateside visit in 2020.

2. Bus taking off

3. Back on February 23, 2016, I had an outdoor toilet dug. I didn't want to redig so I said 6 meters. My friend Uncle Stanley questioned. I envisioned living in Chipepa near Kazembe along time, didn't want to redig. Long story short, in our rainy season , overnight, fortunately, the toilet collapsed. Samuel ten years ago said, "The walls of Jericho Fell Down!!" We used to sing the Song Joshua Fought the Battle Of Jericho"

One used big long poles over the hole and made a platform ontop. I was explaining what happened to the Land Lord what happened. The Landlord had cut the poles from the woods himself. I said your poles were to short, he said your hole was too big. (We were both right.)

God bless and prayers for you all.

" For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord (Romans 6:23)."

"And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment (Hebrews 9:27):"
