Please Pray for Francis Kusi and Our Convert Georgina

Francis is a hero to me. His heart is fixed. His preaching is powerful. His dedication and his zeal for souls are inspiring. I am a better man just to have met him, and I am truly blessed to call him my friend.

I met Francis just over a year ago when I was in Ghana for two months and had the privilege of being his English teacher in Bible college. We became friends and soul-winning partners almost instantly. Georgina is one very special lady whom Francis and I led to the Lord together at her workplace. Through this meeting, we have been able to reach dozens of friends, family, neighbors, and coworkers with the Gospel, and over a dozen of them have been regularly attending for a year! There are very few men that I admire more than Francis Kusi. He is perhaps the best man I can say that I personally know.

Last month, Francis and I partnered together to have a special “Treat Sunday” for our route to encourage them. Pray that our route continues to grow, both spiritually and numerically.

I am humbled and amazed that God would use me to be a help and an encouragement to Francis. I miss my dear brother. I miss our “bus” family and kids. I miss walking those long African dirt roads to visit them. I desire to help this man build a ministry, start a church, or do whatever it is God asks him to do.

Our convert Georgina is in need. Her workplace burned down, and she is out of a job. We want to get her a refrigerator so that she can sell cold beverages for income. Pray that God guides and provides. Also pray for Francis’ wife; she is having their fourth child this month. Lastly, pray for me. Pray that God would continue to prepare, provide for, and use me to help Francis and many others like this mighty man of God. Pray that, by a miracle, I can leave by this summer.

Churches who are supporting me are really supporting people like Francis and Georgina and families like theirs. If you would like to contribute towards Georgina’s refrigerator, please reach out to me by phone (okay to Zelle) or email. I am so thankful for your prayers and support.

For the sake of the Gospel,

Abram Gomez
