

Anna Long
MISSIONARY TO THAILAND

May 2026

Hello, Friends!

My travels have taken me to Florida, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey. I have had the opportunity to be in two different Missions Conferences, as well as several different meetings. I am grateful for the opportunity to present my heart and ministry for Thailand in many different churches.

While I am home for a little while, I have had the chance to go soul winning with my dad. While we were out door knocking, I was able to meet a Nigerian lady named Efe. Dad and I enjoyed talking with her about Nigeria (my birthplace and where my family served as missionaries for 21 years) and getting to connect with her about the culture and the delicious food there in Nigeria. More importantly, though, I was able to lead her through the plan of salvation, and she got saved! I was also able to lead a lady named Sarah, who was raised as a Catholic, to the Lord. I am thankful for the different soul-winning opportunities I have had while I am at home.

Praises:

- I have officially passed the 25% mark! I am so thankful for all my prayer and financial partners.

Prayer Requests:

- My schedule to be filled as the Lord would have it
- My health as I travel
- To raise my support quickly
