

ABRAM GOMEZ

June 2026

I know this is supposed to be a prayer letter, but this letter is largely one of praise and thanks to the great God of Heaven, Who has blessed and prospered my way thus far. By God's grace, I had a church take me on for support every week last month! I also had some individuals take me on for support! Praise God! It looks like I might be able to get to Africa even sooner than October!

I give thanks and praise for the struggles of deputation. I give thanks and praise for testimonies I've heard. I give thanks and praise for the friends I've met, the meals that we've shared, the prayers we've prayed, and the memories we've made. Thanks and praise be to God for a missionary evangelist and his faithful few on a Sunday night who miraculously took me on for support. Thanks and praise be to God for a Messianic Jewish couple who sold me an espresso machine, put $100 in my pocket, and then took me on for monthly support. Thanks and praise be to God for the great reports of answers to prayer among my friends and teammates in Ghana. Thanks and praise be to God for traveling mercies and a vehicle that gets 45 miles per gallon! Thanks and praise be to God for my Pastor, Brian Patterson, the greatest friend I've ever had and the best "Barnabas" I've ever known. Thanks and praise be to God for the best missions agency I could ever ask for. Thanks and praise be to God for countless hundred-dollar handshakes across the country that put food in my stomach, gas in my tank, and encouragement in my heart. And I am so thankful for every person who sees my name on a letter, list, or refrigerator and prays for me. I don't know exactly how you're praying, but I see every day that God is moving, and I wholeheartedly believe it is your prayers that are being answered every day on this road to Ghana.

I covet your prayers. Please keep praying that God will prosper my way, prepare my heart, and pour out blessings through me during these last months on deputation. Please also continue to pray for traveling mercies, as I am almost constantly on the road until I get to Ghana.

Thank you for your loving prayers and support!
