

July Missions Update

Month in Review

This was a good and busy month. We praise the Lord for the visitors He brought and the conversations we were able to have with people. Much of July was spent getting ready for the missions team coming in August and preparing for the children's day event we will be having while they are here.

New Project

For the last several months I have been working on a project with Iván my Argentine assistant. I have been increasingly more burdened for the country of Argentina. I believe I have been doing decent at reaching "my Jerusalem" in Villa Gobernador Galvez where the church is, but I have been thinking about all the other cities and towns in Argentina that have no Gospel witness. I have been convicted that I am not doing enough to reach Argentina, and because of that, Ivan and I have been working on building a website that explains the Gospel and gives resources for understanding salvation, growing in your new faith, and locations for Bible believing and Gospel preaching churches. We have Gospel tracts and plan to go on trips to towns where there is no witness and pass them out and invite people to go to the website to learn more about Jesus and His love for them. In July, we officially started to pass out tracts. I ask you to pray for this new ministry and that more Argentines will come to know Jesus and the salvation He offers.

Prayer Requests

Some prayer requests for the next few weeks are:

- Handing out tracts for the new project
- For the Gospel to take root in our city
- Growth of the church
- Wisdom and energy to accomplish the work

Thank you to all who have been praying and supporting us!

For His Glory,

Robert, Emma, Lucille, Kelsey and Malory Becker
