

THE BOSJES TO THAILAND

September 2026 Update

Do you ever get to the end of a month and think, I can't tell if that month just flew by or took its time? Well, September was that way. It's rainy season here in Thailand, and we have been getting several hours of rain almost every day. That may be why the month seemed a little longer than normal. At the same time, God has done some special things over the last month, and we have so much to rejoice about!

Every Sunday this month, we added an additional afternoon service. Each one of our staff men took a different week and shared his personal testimony. Our church family really enjoyed these services, and they were very well attended. We had between 60–70 people each week. My prayer was that the Lord would use these services to allow us to add a regular weekly afternoon service moving forward, and He did just that. We need church, "and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching."

We held a Missions Conference September 21–23 and had five missionaries with us—four men from Laos and Bro. Philip Pope. Bro. Pope is the man God used to translate the King James Bible into Thai. We were so grateful to spend some time with him and his family, as well as the other missionaries. It was a joy for our church to take on three of the men from Laos that we did not already support. Praise God for allowing us to do our part in reaching other countries for Christ!

While out soul winning several months ago, I met a man named Kag. I shared the Gospel with him, but he politely rejected it. He said he had been a staunch Buddhist his entire life and couldn't leave his religion. I invited him to church, and he promised he would come visit. The following Sunday, he came. After the service, we spoke again. He seemed very interested in the church and told me he'd be back. He returned the next Sunday and then the following Sunday. In fact, last week was his tenth time being in church. That morning, he told me, "I'm finally ready to accept." Since the service was starting, I told him I would deal with him during the invitation. But during the service, he left! I was so disappointed, thinking he had gotten cold feet. When I contacted him the following week, though, he said I could come by his house and talk to him. When I got there, he explained that he had been called into work just as the service was starting. With relief, I gave Kag the Gospel, and he asked Jesus Christ to be his Saviour!

THE BOSJE BOYS

Hudson finally got to meet his Papa Bosje! My dad was only here for a couple of days, but we made the most of his visit. The boys loved having their Papa here and made some great memories together!
